IN TOUCH

Friday 21st March 2023

Issue 657

VISION: Delivering excellence, allowing all to flourish
MISSION: Creating a culture of wonder, guided by Christian Faith
VALUES: COMPASSION - ENDURANCE - THANKFULNESS

Welcome back to the Summer Term! We hope you had a restful and restorative Easter break and are ready for what promises to be another exciting term!

Thanks to Mrs Adams, our Art Teacher, for the photo below. On Tuesday evening, she attended the opening of the Single Use Planet art exhibition at Southside Shopping Centre, a collaborative project for Wandsworth primary schools facilitated by Wandsworth Council and the Royal College of Art, in partnership with Kids Against Plastic. The project was led by artist Blake C. Joshua (seen with artwork from St. Mary's below). Single Use Planet is free and open from 19th April - 5th May. Please find attached a flyer for children and their families with full information should you wish to see the exhibition and take part in the weekend workshops. In addition, there is a competition running alongside the exhibition for children to enter, with a chance to win a goody bag of eco art materials and Kids Against Plastic goodies. Please see attached information.

Also coming home with In Touch today is a letter which outlines our plans to celebrate the King's upcoming coronation. There is a whole school homework task this week and the details are outlined in the letter as well as what children should wear and bring to school on our coronation celebration day.

Finally this week, many of you will be aware the NEU have announced further strike action for teachers on Thursday 27th April and Tuesday 2nd May. As with previous strike days, please ensure that you have childcare arrangements in place and I will again let you know the status of the school as soon as possible on each morning.

Have a restful weekend,
Cheryl Payne—Head Teacher
